

Neighborhood Housing & Community Development

Providing Opportunities, Changing Lives

"Improvements on East 11th Street have positively impacted my life. It gave me a job. And I can walk to work, which saves me money."

Freddie Thomas

Mission

To provide housing, community development and small business development services to benefit eligible residents so they can have access to livable neighborhoods and increase their opportunities for self-sufficiency.

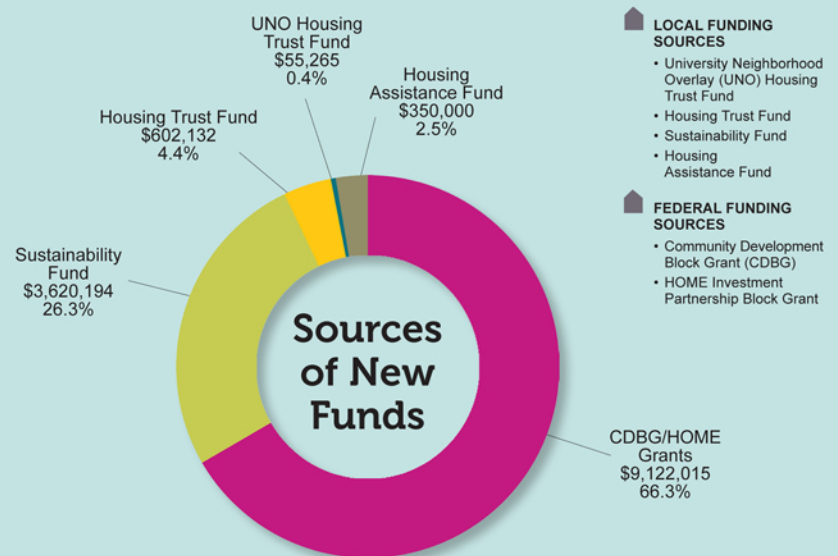

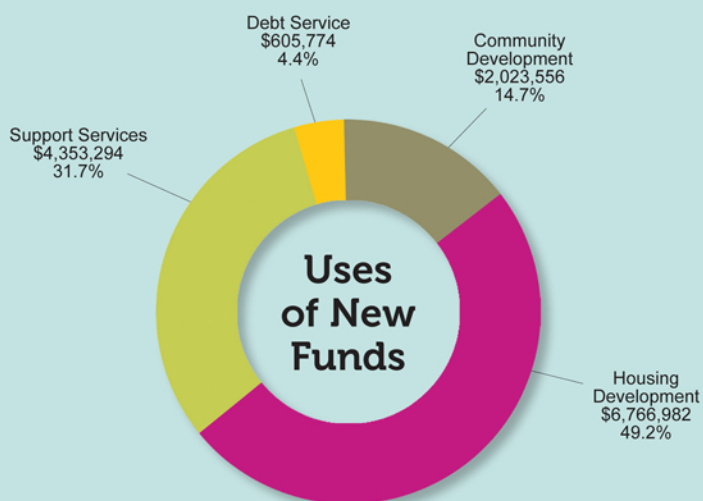

Did You Know?

- More than one-fourth of Austin residents experiencing poverty are five or younger. Nearly 17,000 children in Austin live in poverty.
- There is a need for more than 39,000 rental units for Austin's residents earning less than $20,000 per year.

Financial Overview 2012-13

Total New Funding $13,749,606

Strategic Planning Areas

The Neighborhood Housing and Community Development Office provides an array of programs and services that support housing affordability, community development and small business development and increasing opportunities for self-sufficiency for Austin residents. These six strategic planning areas are integral in NHCD's programs and practices.

1. Education & Engagement

2. Healthy Homes

3. Neighborhood & Commercial Revitalization

5. Financial Empowerment & Asset Building

4. Sustainable & Equitable Housing

6. Homeless & Special Needs Initiatives

Neighborhood Housing & Community Development Office

1000 E. 11th St., Austin, Texas 78702

www.austintexas.gov/housing

Email: NHCD@austintexas.gov | Phone: 512-974-3100

The City is committed to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Reasonable modifications and equal access to communications will be provided upon request. Program funding is provided through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs, and the City of Austin.